The World Youth Alliance

Please join us on Thursday, September 15th at 1:00 PM EST for a presentation about The World Youth Alliance (WYA) with Julia Kenney. WYA is an international, non-profit organization and a coalition of young people ages 10 - 30 that promotes human dignity as the foundation of society. Anna Halpine founded WYA at the United Nations in 1999 during the ICPD Cairo +5 conference where she identified the need for person-centered solutions. Through WYA's educational, cultural, and advocacy programs, young people develop the intellectual foundation and leadership skills necessary to confidently navigate the culture in a way that respects the dignity of every human person. She will present the opportunity to establish WYA chapters in your schools, parishes, or other community settings. Then, she will propose a return visit with her colleague late October to present WYA to your youth.

Julia Kenney serves as the North America regional director of operations (RDO) for The World Youth Alliance (WYA). Julia is from Livonia, MI and earned her Bachelor of Business Administration with a concentration in Finance from Saint Mary's College (Notre Dame, IN). Julia oversees all of WYA's operations in Canada and the United States. She coordinates WYA chapters at universities and high schools, mentors interns, and organizes conferences and events throughout the year. Julia's role is to help young people understand, articulate, and integrate the concept of human dignity into all aspects of society and culture. Julia strives to influence integral human development so that all young people may lead truly free and fulfilling lives.
