Speak with Conference Chair, Dr. Lauri Przybysz, and learn the details about the work of the NACFLM Conference Committee to arrange nationally-known speakers, pre-conference trainings, entertainment, liturgies, sponsors, and exhibitors for this year's NACFLM National Family Life Ministry Conference at Catholic University of America in Washington, DC. Beginning Saturday, July 22 through Wednesday, July 26, 2017, the conference theme is "The Missionary Impulse Within Our Families: Intersections with Catholic Social Teaching" inspired by Pope Francis' exhortation to us to do ministry in a "missionary key." Ask questions about registration, lodging, and travel. Learn how the NACFLM Conference can prepare us to take action after the upcoming Bishops' July 1-4 Orlando Convocation for Catholic Leaders on the Joy of the Gospel and in advance of the 2018 Vatican Synod on Youth and Vocation.

Dr. Lauri Przybysz is the Executive Director of the Christian Family Movement-USA, www.cfm.org, part of an international confederation of Catholic family life movements. She received the Doctor of Ministry in Pastoral Ministry at the Catholic University of America in 2012, specializing in marriage and family enrichment, and she also has been a pastoral associate, a teacher in Catholic schools, and most recently Coordinator of Marriage and Family Life for Archdiocese of Baltimore (2001-2015). Lauri and her husband, John, are a sponsor couple for marriage prep in their parish in Millersville, Maryland, and they have spoken on encouraging "the Church in the home" at the Pontifical Council on the Family in Rome, and at family life conferences in the U.S., Europe, Latin America, and India. Dr. Przybysz is mother of 6 children and grandmother of twenty-one.
