Greg Schleppenbach is the associate director of the Secretariat of ProLife Activities for the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops. In this role, Mr. Schleppenbach helps develop strategies and policy positions on abortion, bioethical issues such as euthanasia, end-of-life care, human embryo research, etc., working in collaboration with the USCCB's offices of Government Relations and General Counsel. Mr. Schleppenbach also serves as the Secretariat's key liaison with other Church and pro-life organizations to pursue effective advocacy on these pro-life issues, in addition to having extensive speaking, writing and lobbying experience on these issues.*
