

"SOW-REAPP Program"

Please join us for a presentation by Peter Kennedy from the Center for Family Life Formation of the Archdiocese of Omaha. Patrick will present a new program entitled SOW-REAPP.™ developed for family life leaders.

Within each project and resource offered by the Center for Family Life Formation, participants are guided through self-examination and opening themselves to the work of God in their lives. This process has been developed through reflection on Sacred Scripture and the writings of various saints. It is most easily understood through the acronym, SOW-REAPP.™ The elements of the program are: Silence, Openness, Waiting, Receive, Examine, Assimilate, Pray and Plan.

Peter is the Manager of Family Life Ministries at the Center for Family Life Formation in the Archdiocese of Omaha and is currently in formation to become a deacon. His undergraduate studies at St. John's University (MN) included theology, philosophy, art, and education all while playing both football and lacrosse, and participating in various forms of ministry. After some time at St. Joseph's Seminary (Dunwoodie) in New York, he completed a Master's degree in Theology at the Notre Dame Graduate School of Christendom College (VA) and received an Advanced Apostolic Catechetical Diploma from the Holy See. His background includes adult faith formation, Bible studies, coaching, youth ministry, men's ministry, prison ministry, and teaching at the junior high, high school, and collegiate levels. His current work involves marriage preparation, assisting with anti-pornography and human trafficking efforts of the archdiocese, sitting on the Board of Directors for the Fr. Flanagan League Society of Devotion, and teaching philosophy at a local community college. He and his wife Karla reside in Irvington, NE with their five children.
