

National Association of Catholic Family Life Ministers Professional Development Conference Call

MINISTRY TO MIXED FAITH COUPLES

Please join us on Thursday, February 21st for our next Professional Development Conference Call. We are pleased to have Bonnie Mack from the Archdiocese of Cincinnati with us to share her expertise on ministry to mixed faith couples.

Bonnie will address the issues of ecumenism, the new evangelization and ministry with inter church couples. She will also look at the special issues facing mixed faith couples preparing for marriage in the Church.

Many of us in family ministry deal with a variety of couples from many faith traditions and some who profess no interest in religion. We encourage you to join us for a presentation and discussion about how best to work with these issues.

Bonnie Mack is a part-time program coordinator of marriage preparation and enrichment in the Cincinnati Archdiocese, on staff since 1991. In addition to the above, she coordinates programs for newly-married and interchurch couples (Catholic/Protestant) in the archdiocese. She is Region Six's representative to the NACFLM Board.

Bonnie has a B.A. from Baldwin-Wallace College, Berea, OH, and taught high school prior to joining the Cincinnati Family Life Office. Although she's received much formal training through conferences and workshops, her most valuable learning has come through her own marriage and family experiences. Bonnie has been married to Tom since 1969 and has 3 married children and 5 grandchildren. She has both professional and practical experience in interchurch ministry. Bonnie and Tom are an interchurch couple.
