

National Association of Catholic Family Life Ministers Professional Development Conference Call

Date of Call: 11/20/2014

Time of Call: 1:30 pm Eastern

Love Is Our Mission

Please join us on Thursday November 20th at 1:30 PM EST for the first in a series of special PDCC on Love Is Our Mission the preparatory catechesis for the World Meeting of Families scheduled for next fall in Philadelphia. Bishop McIntyre will explain the process of the world meeting and how the preparatory catechesis was created for this particular gathering. Bishop McIntyre will offer ideas for how parish and diocesan leaders might start preparing right now for the WMOF. Registration is now open for the meeting next fall, and keynoters are being announced, so join us to learn from someone who is on the front lines of this singular event.

John J. McIntyre was born in the Germantown section of Philadelphia on August 20, 1963 to Thomas and Blanche (nee Ferrero) McIntyre. He is one of three children. The McIntyres were parishioners of St. Michael of the Saints Parish in Germantown followed by Resurrection of Our Lord Parish in Rhawnhurst. Bishop McIntyre attended Father Judge High School, Philadelphia, for three years before deciding to study for the Redemptorists and attended Saint Mary's High School Seminary in North East, Pa. He graduated from Saint Alphonsus Seminary in Suffield, Connecticut in 1986 and completed one year of theological studies at Washington Theological Union. He entered Saint Charles Borromeo Seminary in September of 1989. He earned a Masters of Divinity from Saint Charles in 1991. He was ordained a priest in 1992.

Bishop McIntyre served as a parochial vicar at St. Dominic Parish, Philadelphia, from 1992 to 1995, and as parochial vicar at St. Mark Parish, Bristol, from 1995 to 1999. He served as Secretary to the Archbishop from 1999 to 2010. In 2003, he was named Chaplain to His Holiness with the title of "Monsignor" and in 2005 a Prelate of Honor. He also has served on the Archdiocesan Admissions Board for Saint Charles Seminary; the Council of Priests; and as Chaplain to the Sisters of Mercy, Merion, PA. He was ordained an Auxiliary Bishop of Philadelphia on August 6, 2010.
