This presentation is an introduction to the personal formation needed for well-rounded and well-prepared lay persons called to serve the church in parish and diocesan programs for family life ministry, focusing on the four pillars of ministry formation: human, spiritual, intellectual, and pastoral, as presented in the Co-Workers in the Vineyard of the Lord: A Resource Guide for Developing Lay Ecclesial Ministry.

Learning Objectives:

- You will learn what preparation and formation are needed by lay staff and volunteers.
- You will begin to develop a personal plan for on-going formation in ministry.
- You will learn a process of theological reflection to enrich your current ministry efforts.
- You will learn about resources for implementing your plan for formation.

Dr. Lauri Przybysz

As coordinator of Marriage and Family Life in the Archdiocese of Baltimore, Dr. Lauri Przybysz has designed, run, and coached leaders to present workshops and training for marriage, family life, healthy relationships, and ministry formation for volunteers. She completed the Doctor of Ministry at Catholic University in 2012, in pastoral ministry with an emphasis in adult faith formation. She was invited to the Vatican in 2009 help plan family evangelization projects with the Pontifical Council for the Family. She and her husband, John, are past-presidents of the Christian Family Movement-USA. A member of NACFLM since 2001, she recently chaired the Journal Commission.
